Maryland Physician Cures Himself of Eczema with Cuticura Remedies. Prescribes Them and Has Cured Many Cases Where Other Formulas Have Failed - Dr. Fisher Says!

CUTICURA REMEDIES POSSESS TRUE MERIT

" My face was afflicted with eczema in the year 1897. I used the Cuticura Remedies, and was entirely cured. I am a practicing physician and very often prescribe Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap in cases of eczema, and they have cured where other formulas have failed. I am not in the habit of endorsing patent medicines, but when I find remedies possessing true merit, such as the Cuticura Remedies do, I am broad-minded enough to proclaim their virtues to the world. I have been practicing medicine for sixteen years, and must say I find your Remedies A No. 1. You are at liberty to publish this letter, or any part of it. I remain, very truly yours, G. M. ### HIGHBRED YOUNG HORSETHIEF CAUGHT

South and Western to Give Gate City the Go By.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GATE CITY, VA., July 25.—The carly part of last week, Warren Davis, a young man of fine appearance, hired a valuable Kentucky saddler from liveryman, D. S. Bond, of Gate City, to ride to Wise D. S. Bond, of Gate City, to ride to Wise, county. Not returning at the specified time, Mr. Bond went in search of the horse and found that David had sold the horse for $130 about half its value, to a Mr. Hall, of Wise county. After a wearisome chase, Bon drecovered the horse and captured Davis, who is now in Cate City 1611.

Davis is said to belong to an excellent and wealthy family of Russell county.

Owing to high prices charged for rights of way, Gate City is about to lose the South and Western Railway. The South and Western Railway. The original plan was to construct the road through Moccasin Gap and Gate City, but recently a route has been surveyed to tunned Clinch Mountain eight miles west of Gate City, which will shorten the road ten miles. The people along the new route are giving the rights of way and offering all possible inducements. The question as to the route will be settled within the next few days. The loss of the road will be a severe blow to Gate City, and many of the land owners see their mistake when it is probably too late.
